ARAIYA ANTHOLOGY

RAMGARH, NAINITAL

Elevated Comfort in the Himalayas

Tucked into the Kumaon hills, Amaraya is an intimate retreat designed for stillness, long views, and unhurried days. With just eleven rooms, it feels less like a hotel and more like a private retreat in the mountains.

Mornings unfold slowly here—mist lifting over the valley, light spilling into high-ceilinged rooms. Evenings are best spent outdoors, around a fire or at a table set against the horizon.

Why stay here

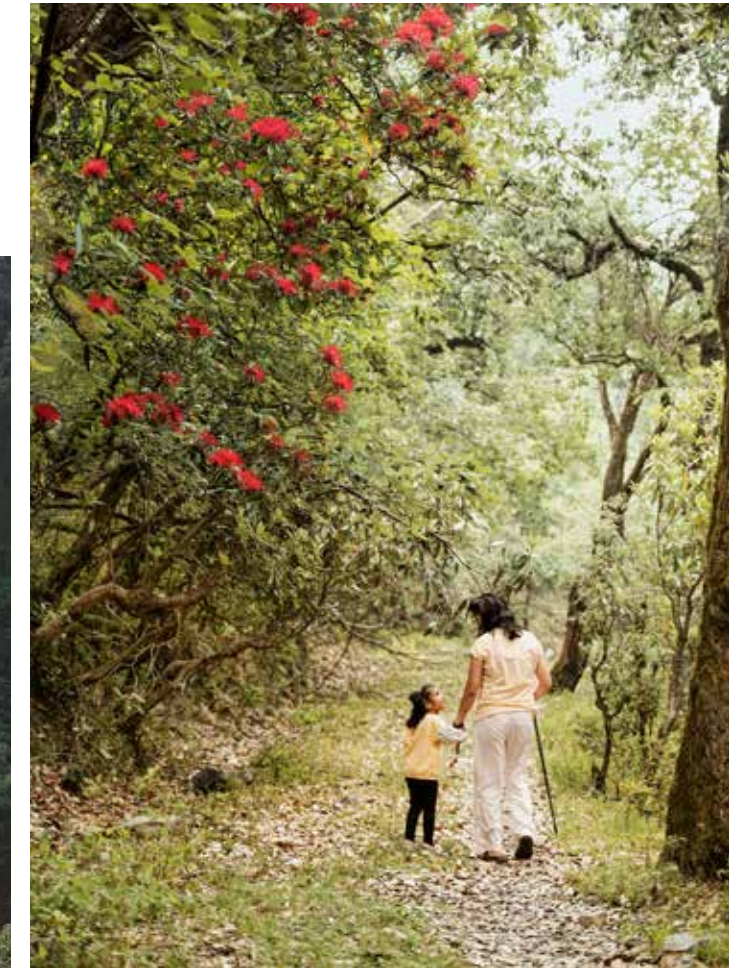

- Just 11 rooms and suites for a highly private experience
- Elevated setting with uninterrupted Himalayan views
- Ideal for slow travel, small gatherings, and extended stays

Best experienced through

- Sunrise walks to Tagore Top
- Evenings under the stars with curated dining
- Visits to Neem Karoli Baba Ashram and surrounding villages

Getting there

Pantnagar Airport (2.5 hrs) | Bareilly (3.5 hrs) | 6 hrs drive from Delhi

NARENDRA NAGAR, RISHIKESH

Royal Heritage Above Rishikesh

Kinwani House is a six-suite royal home set above the Ganges valley, designed for complete takeovers and uninterrupted privacy. The experience is tailored, discreet, and entirely your own—from meals to daily rhythms.

There is a sense of calm that comes from scale here. Nothing feels shared. Everything feels considered.

- Just 6 suites; best suited for exclusive use
- Residential setting with full-service hospitality
- Close to Rishikesh, yet removed from its pace

Best experienced through

- Private yoga and breathwork sessions
- Evenings overlooking the valley
- Ganga Aarti visits, curated quietly

BANDARJUDH, HARIDWAR

At the Edge of the Wild

Set along the buffer zone of Rajaji National Park, Aalia offers a softer, more immersive approach to the jungle. Days are shaped by movement—safaris, walks, and open-air experiences balanced by slow, restorative time back at the retreat.

The setting is expansive, but the experience remains personal.

Why stay here

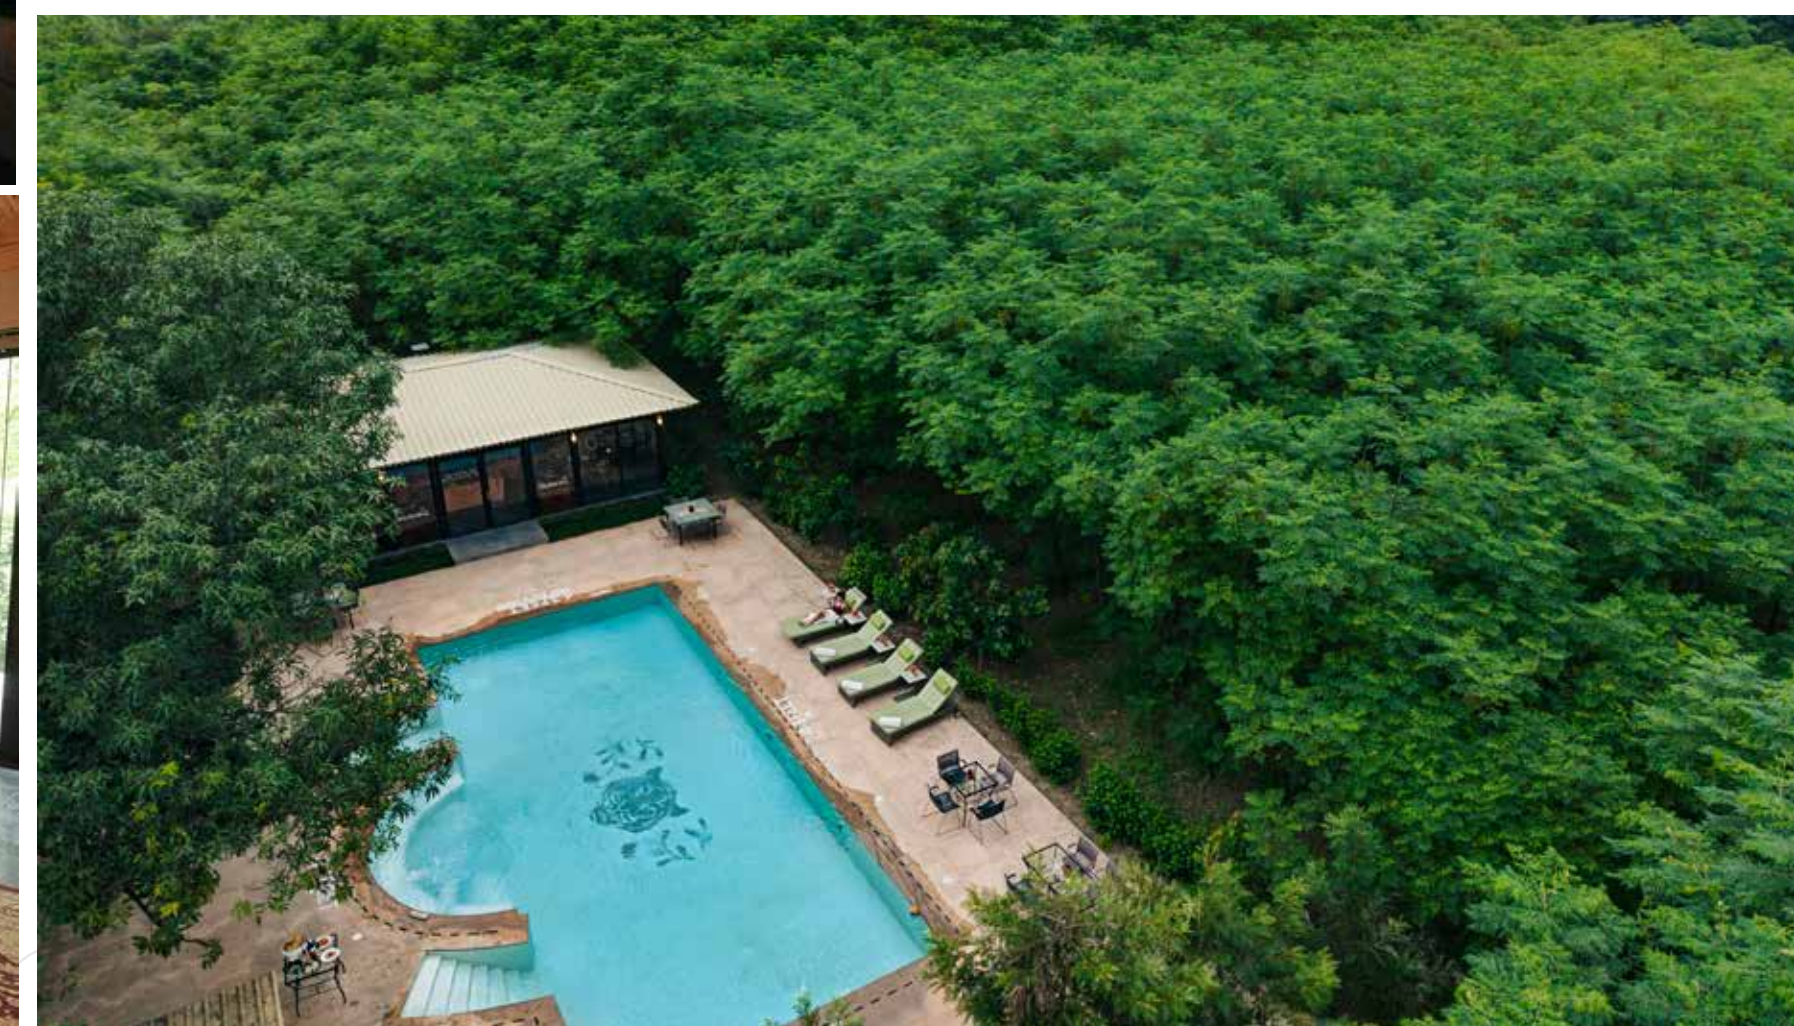

- Direct access to the Rajaji landscape
- A balance of activity and downtime
- Ideal for families and small groups

Best experienced through

- Jeep safaris and forest picnics
- Nature walks and horse riding
- Evenings by the pool after a day outdoors

Getting there

PALAMPUR, HIMACHAL PRADESH

A Slower Pace in the Kangra Valley

Surrounded by tea gardens and framed by the Dhauladhar range, Araiya Palampur is defined by space, air, and a gentler rhythm. It is less about itinerary, more about time to pause, to reset, to simply be.

The landscape does most of the work here.

Why stay here

- Expansive natural setting in the Kangra Valley
- Designed for relaxation and longer stays
- Easy access to Dharamshala without the density

Best experienced through

- Walks through tea estates and local villages
- Riverside picnics and forest treks
- Day trips to Dharamshala and Norbulingka
- Slow afternoons with mountain views

Getting there

Kangra Airport (1.5 hrs) | 6 hrs drive from Chandigarh/Amritsar

SASAN, GIR

A Contemporary Stay in the Wild Sasan Gir

Set in the heart of Gir, this is Araiya at its most expansive private villas, open landscapes, and a strong connection to the surrounding wilderness. Despite its scale, the experience remains composed and well-paced.

It is a base for exploration, without losing comfort.

Why stay here

- 48 villas with strong emphasis on space and privacy
- Close proximity to Gir National Park
- Suitable for both short escapes and extended stays

Best experienced through

- Lion safaris in Gir National Park
- Evenings by the lake and private villa spaces
- Celebrations and gatherings in a natural setting
